BUSINESS BLOCK ON SITE-OF OLD

J. S. Raynolds Will Erect Building to Cost $30,000.

WILL BE DEVOTED TO

Albuquerque is growing fast and factories are springing up on all sides so rapidly that the news of a new Well Known Concern Which Owns Manhattan structure has ceased to cause suprise. Albuquerqueans, however, will be pleased to learn that work will begin today on one of the handsomest commercial edifices in the city.

Joshua S. Reynolds has let the contract to J. W. McQuade for the contract struction of a three-story business block on the site of the old Highland be arranged for offices. It will be fitted with all modern conveniences and will be an architectural ornament to that part of the city, where the ruins of the old hotel have long been an eyesore. It is expected, moreover, that the city is growing and rapidly assuming metropolitan airs.

Manager Curtis of the company, has written several letters to persons in this city in regard to opening a house eyesore. It is expected, moreover, that the city is growing and rapidly assuming metropolitan airs.

New York, Nov. 24.—Copper was decidedly higher abroad, closing at 176 for spot, and 175 5s for futures. The local market is streng. Electrolytic is said to be in better demand than here and sales have been made, it is of the business section of the city east. Third street for a theatre site.

MORE LOGGERS AT WORK IN THE ZUNIS THAN EVER BEFORE

John Belknap, woods superintendent of the American Lumber company spent yesterday in the city visiting his son, Gorman Belknap, who is in the St. Joseph sanitarium. He was intending to take his son home with him, but he decided that he would leave him here for a week or two more. Mr. Belknap says that there are more logging hands at work in the woods of the American Lumber company than at any time since the company started operations. The Arizona lumber camps have all closed for the winter and as the American is the only com-pany operating Juring the winter seapossibly the exception of one or two small concerns, there are plenty of lumbermen obtainable. Mr. Beikunp left for his home in Thoreau last

WILL BUY 150 ARIZONA HORSES TO TAKE TO

Hughes, of Kenton, Oklahoma, spent yesterday in the city and left last night for Holbrook, Ariz., where they went to purchase 150 head of horses. Mr. G. "We came out to buy some of your western horses," said the younge, Mr. Mexico horses, said the younge, at.
Mexico horses do well down in Oblahoma. Their principal virtue is the fact that they are good feeders and hardy animals. We are going to buy the very best horses we can find and we may some back to the country after a few more consignments if these we get zell well. Several of the ranchers down our way have New Mexico horses and they are giving good satisfaction, so we thought we would come Mrz. S. C. Clarke, wife of Dr. S. C. out and get a bunch."
